The Dream

The Norwegian Dream's keel was laid on June 3, 1991 in St. Nazaire, France. It took two years to design and seventeen months to build at a cost of $240 million dollars. Worldwide superstar Diana Ross christened the brand new M/S Dreamward on December 6, 1992 as the ship set sail on her maiden voyage to the Western Caribbean.

The Dreamward was renamed the M/S Norwegian Dream in May, 1998 after a two month project to "stretch" the ship in Bremerhaven, Germany. The ship was lengthened 133 feet at a cost of $69 million dollars.

Interesting facts:

Gross Tonnage: 50,764

Length: 230 meters / 754 feet

Width: 28 meters / 94 feet

Height: 50 meters / 164 feet

Draft: 6.8 Meters / 23 feet

Average Speed: 17 Knots

Maximum Speed: 18 Knots

Anchors: 2 forward weighing 8.7 tons each and one aft weighing 4.3 tons

Our fuel consumption is an average of 1,100 gallons per hour. Our fuel capacity is 1,150 tons or 475,561 gallons.

During the stretching project, two major enhancements were made. Both the ship's funnel and radar mast are now hydraulically equipped. A large portion of the mast can be lowered and the top third of the funnel can be "flipped", allowing us to pass under bridges such as those in the Kiel Canal in Germany.

Dear Cruise Director,

The professional portraits are on tonight and we want to look our best. Any suggestions?

Capturing tonight's magic is important so I asked a professional in our Photo Gallery on Deck 10. Here are his suggestions for you.

1. Show us your good side. For the most slimming pose, position your body at a 45 degree angle to the camera.
2. Put your best foot forward. Now, put your outside foot slightly forward with toes pointing toward the camera.
3. A little goes a long way. Limit makeup; it reflects light and can make you look pale.
4. Don't be shy. Stand close to your partner.
5. Sit up straight. Good posture makes a world of difference in a photo.
6. Look this way. Turn your head toward the camera and listen to the photographer's instructions. They will make sure you look your best.
