KEITH RILEY

Hailing from New Zealand, Keith works on the Ocean Endeavour's skiing and climbing program. He gets great satisfaction enabling people to see more of Antarctica through adventures on skis or crampons.

Keith has dedicated and excessive part of his life to climbing mountains and paddling rivers around the world. This enthusiasm for adventure has inadvertently lead to a career in guiding and instructing in the outdoors. He works throughout New Zealand helping people develop the skills to operate in the adventure tourism industry or the Search and Rescue field.

Keith doubles as a serial renovator turning derelict houses into functional dwellings.

At home in Hokitika, he has a two and a four year old daughter (Maani and Nemah) as well as a super supportive wife. (Jo) Trampolining, gymnastics, skate parks and canoe trips fill the family schedule.
