ROSS HOWATSON

Ross holds a Yacht Master Offshore Certification as well as various Coastal Navigation accreditations and works as a Naturalist Polar Guide/Zodiac Driver in Antarctica, South Georgia and the Falkland Islands during the summer months “downunder”. In the Northern Hemisphere summer his compass has him heading to the Arctic Regions including Svalbard, Greenland and the High Canadian Arctic as a Polar Bear Guard and Naturalist Guide. A Blue Water sailor at heart he has accumulated thousands of miles sailing offshore including a circumnavigation of Canada’s Vancouver Island, crossing the Northern Pacific Ocean in a home built Wharram Catamaran and sailing the South China Seas. Oddly enough he also collect’s Italian motorcycles of the 1980’s should you have any in your shed please let him know. Ross hopes you share his interest and intrigue in the Polar Regions particularly the explorers, adventurers and culture’s of the peoples who both thrived and suffered in this most humbling and awe-inspiring location we endeavor to visit. These inspiring places on our planet that can offer so much insight to who we are and what we have become.
