SHANE EVOY

Shane was born and raised on Georgian Bay, Ontario. He was destined to work on water. For 36 years he worked for his father's, and then his own, marina. Shane's love of Antarctica is clear in his welcoming speeches on board as well as his passion for the environment.

He is an experienced leader with over 190 Antarctic Expeditions and twenty two years under his belt. He has led trips for the past nineteen years, which has also included the remote islands of the south pacific to his travel log. Shane's objective on any trip is to make sure you have the "Trip of a Lifetime".
